When a person seeks the services of a chiropractor, it is essential that they fully understand the objectives of that particular chiropractor.

The goal of Chiropractic is to restore and maintain the integrity of the spinal cord and its nerve roots. These vital nerve pathways are located in the protected by the bones of the spine. Misalignments of the vertebrae (bones of the spine), which interfere with the function of these nerve pathways, are called vertebral subluxations. Subluxations are caused by many of the things you do everyday and keep your whole body from functioning properly. It is with absolute conviction that the body is always better off without this interference.

Consequently, the objective of Dr. L. F. Koch is to provide a chiropractic adjustment to correct subluxations thereby restoring normal nerve function. It is not the objective or intention of this office to fix, treat or attempt to cure any physical, mental or emotional ailment or to give advice about any ailments. With a proper nerve supply your whole is better able to reach its full potential and to express more life.
